SECTION J: PRIVACY AND STUDENT DECLARATION

PRIVACY AND RIGHT TO INFORMATION

Macquarie University is subject to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW). Macquarie University collects the information on this application form for the primary purpose of meeting its obligations under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the Education Services for Overseas Students Regulations 2001 and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training for Students 2009 (National Code). Macquarie University also collects your personal information and, in some circumstances, information regarding your health, to assist in the assessment of your application and, if you are successful, offering you a course place and recording your acceptance of that offer. The other purposes of collection include to correspond with you, attend to day-to-day administrative matters, inform you about your courses and other aspects of admission or enrolment and comply with legislative reporting requirements. While your personal information is generally collected from you, Macquarie University also collects information about you (such as official records of study) from other educational institutions that you have attended for the purpose of verifying the supporting documentation you have provided with your application.

The information you provide in your application (and, if your application is successful, any offer letter) is recorded on the University's student database and may be disclosed to the following types of organisations:

- government departments (such as the Department of Immigration and Border Protection, the Department of Education and Training and other agencies involved in administering the ESOS legislation);
- external organisations (such as other tertiary education institutions) where disclosure is necessary to verify your previous qualifications and other supporting documentation provided with your application;
- University-owned entities;
- contracted service providers which the University uses to provide services on its behalf (such as banks, printers/mailing houses and IT service providers);
- where required by law.

If you do not provide the required information, the University will not be able to consider you for admission or to enrol you.

You are able to gain access to any personal information and health information that the University holds about you, subject to any exceptions in relevant legislation. To request access to your personal information, email ask.information@mq.edu.au. If you have any questions about the handling of your personal information, write to: Privacy Officer, Macquarie University NSW 2109 or email privacyofficer@mq.edu.au.
